JCRC-LI’s 2013 Holiday Party

Scroll of Honor

Multicultural Visions: Four Artists Exploring Identity

Wednesday, November 20, 2013 ● Chelsea Mansion

JCRC-LI’s Holiday party will be attended by 150 leaders from Long Island’s business, philanthropic and professional communities, as well as elected officials. More than 25 religious, ethnic and cultural groups will be represented. JCRC-LI’s first Holiday Party and Art Exhibition will feature four Long Island artists:

- African American Artist: Stanley L. Covington, Jr.
- Jewish Artist: Paul Kolker
- Latino Artist: Lisbeh Herrera
- Sikh Artist: Manu Saluja

The artists will exhibit their work and discuss how it reflects their identities.

We invite you to make a contribution to support the work of JCRC-LI at one of the following levels: Contributions can be made in honor/memory of a friend or family member.

- $1,800 – Masterpiece
- $1,000 – Oil Painting
- $500 – Acrylic
- $360 – Watercolor
- $180 – Sketch

A scroll of honor will be displayed listing supporters of the event.

Checks should be made payable to JCRC and sent with your desired text for Scroll of Honor by November 13th to:

JCRC-LI
6900 Jericho Turnpike Suite 302
Syosset, NY 11791
Attention: David Newman

Contributions can also be made online at www.jcrcny.org/donate.

JCRC-LI’s mission is to inform and mobilize the Long Island community to take action locally, nationally, and internationally to address community relations issues important to both the Jewish and non-Jewish communities by:

- Fostering positive and meaningful inter-group/inter-faith relationships
- Serving as a resource for information and advocacy about Israel and international affairs to the Jewish and non-Jewish communities of Long Island
- Maintaining an on-going dialogue between the Jewish community and governmental officials at the local, state and federal level
- Serving as an umbrella for Jewish institutions across Long Island

JCRC is a 501c3 organization and contributions are tax deductible to the fullest extent permitted by law

For more information please contact
David Newman, JCRC-LI Executive Director, at newmand@jcrcli.org or 516.677.1866