

JCRC-NY Launches Young Professionals Initiative

On February 27th, a new Young Professionals Network was launched with a cocktail reception and discussion centered on the changing role of the Jewish community in the NYC political landscape, with JCRC-NY Board Members Ester Fuchs of Columbia University and Jonathan Greenspun of Mercury Communications. The event was hosted at L’Oreal USA with the generosity of JCRC-NY Board Member Suzanne Davidowitz.

The goal of this Young Professionals Network initiative is to cultivate relationships with individuals in their 20’s and 30’s and connect them to the work of JCRC-NY.

For more information on the Network and future events/programs, please contact Grant Silverstein, (212) 983-4800 x149, silversteing@jcrny.org.
